

The STOP CANCER Membership Committee presents

an Afternoon Interactive Book Review facilitated by

Judith Palarz

Thurs., March 25 • 1-3pm

at The Wilshire

(The Wilshire Room)

10580 Wilshire Blvd.

Judith Palarz, well known book group facilitator of private groups, at the Beverly Hills Library, the Huntington Library and Hillcrest Country Club, will lead attendees through a discussion of “Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet” by Jamie Ford — a New York Times Bestseller.

Set in Seattle in the 1940’s and 1980’s, an easy read with substance — a Chinese-Japanese variation of Romeo and Juliet with themes of father/son relationships and a vivid history lesson of what happened to Japanese Americans during World War II.

It is recommended guests read the book prior to attending, but not necessary. Available in paperback, Kindle, and audio CD.

We hope to see you there!
